Location: Greencastle is a small community of approximately 10,000 residents and is conveniently located just 45 minutes from the metropolis of Indianapolis, a city of over 1 million people, and approximately 3 hours from Chicago.

Students: Approximately 2,400 full-time undergraduates representing 42 states and 41 foreign countries.

Student-faculty ratio: 10 to 1.

Activities: DePauw is a highly recognized school for both academics and quality of life for the students. It is consistently ranked among the best small private liberal arts institutions in the country and their graduates tend to be very successful. International students have a significant support through the Center for the International and Experiential Education. On campus there is a great arts scene with theatre and music, not to mention one of the best college radio stations in the country. There are numerous club and athletics opportunities, and it goes without saying that for those who like a strong social life, DePauw is known for its parties.

Come here for a mixed experience: small town, small school, but big social life. Tough academics.
