Customized Program Request Form

Name of university or academic institution: ____________________________________________

Contact name: ______________________________ Email: ______________________________

Contact title: ______________________________ Telephone: ____________________________

Proposed program academic focus: __________________________________________________

If language immersion program, please indicate the number of levels required: _________

Indicate subject(s) to be taught/lectured by USFQ faculty (required 50% min. of content):
______________________________________________________________________________

Please check one:

USFQ transcript: _________ OR Home institution transcript: _________

Estimated # of students: ________________ Tentative dates: _____________________________

Preferred accommodations (hotels or homestay): ______________________________________

Number of faculty from your university traveling with students (if any): _________________

Would you like to visit any of the following USFQ extensions? (please check all that apply):

1. ____ The Galápagos Islands ______ Number of days

   If visiting the USFQ campus in the Galápagos, would you like to visit other islands besides
   San Cristobal? ______ Yes ______ No

       -If yes, which islands? (if unknown, leave blank) ________________________________

Would you like to include an island hopping or cruise? ______ Yes ______ No

       -If yes, for how many days? __________

2. ____ Tipitini Research Station (Amazon jungle) ______ Number of days*

   *Please note you can only enter or leave TBS on Mondays or Fridays. The minimum number of days in TBS is from Friday to Monday (4 days, 3 nights). Yellow fever vaccine certificate is required.

3. ____ Paluguillo (Tundra) ______ Number of Days (usually a 1 day visit)

4. ____ Mindo (Cloud Forest) ______ Number of Days

5. ____ Instituto de Santiago, Riobamba (Andes Mountains) ______ Number of Days*

   *Minimum of an overnight stay
*Other places in Ecuador or in South America you would like to visit (i.e. Cotopaxi Volcano, Baños, the Coast, etc.):

_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________

*Any special activities required (i.e. hiking, diving, camping, snorkeling, cooking, visits to communities, company visits, service learning projects, etc.):

_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________

*Please note we can recommend places to visit and activities, depending on the academic subject of your choice.

Other recommendations or requests:

_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________

Date by which program quote is needed:
_____________________________________________________________________

How did you hear about USFQ Customized Programs? (optional)
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________